TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Marintec Srl is an Underwriting Agency located in Genoa specialised in the intermediation and signing of marine and ancillary risks which operates in the global market scenario both as Lloyd's Correspondent and as Mandatory of many International first class Companies. During the years Marintec has widened its significant presence even in all other classes of risks.

Because of its business partners, providers, insurance's companies and obviously clients, Marintec Srl needed to face an incremental support of the Information Technology in order to maintain business continuity, anti-intrusion cautions, safety and confidentiality measures for the whole back-office activities.

Since January 2007 Marintec Srl acquainted Dr Reina to leverage the standard of IT tidiness by reviewing either the hardware infrastructure and the software ERP/CRM platforms. Moreover, he completely redesigned the company external image by taking care of the official web site. His diligence also impacted on the privacy system and the IT regulatory praxis which require determination and passion.

Thank to the Dr Reina expertise, our company quickly achieved an entire new Total Quality Management inspired according ISO 27001, ISO 2000, and ITIL virtuous IT system. All the job functions were traversed by the Security features for either human and assets resources.

Dr Reina combines an impressive technical competence with a friendly attitude towards people to whom he interacts. His academic style, let everyone getting favourably accustomed by the way of his teaching and explaining. His willingness goes beyond the duties and an exceeding energy allows him to accomplish even tough tasks. Above all, he denoted a special capacity of coupling rigorous analysis methodology with a simple on-the-field performances.

I especially value Dr Reina also for his humanity and rich personality; I consider a privilege to have had him as close Consultant and Advisor. His role consistently contributed to the business even in the critical phases because of a contagious enthusiasm and a peculiar dedication.

It is a pleasure to me to acknowledge Dr Reina with my esteem and intimate gratefulness to legitimate his aspiration as professionals.

To whom it may concern

The Alessandro Gaeta Srl is a private company that is in the market of the Chemicals and the Environmental industrial anti-Pollution Reagents since 1917. Committed with an elevate portfolio of International clients, our Company always attended laws obligations and comply with ISO9001 and ISO14001 standard.

Since the 2005 the internal steering committee decided to formally and substantially face the national legal prescription of the Dlg196/03 (commonly called Privacy Code) and the European Data Protection Directive 96/45/EU. In order to respect all the GRC duties and maintain adequate and fulfilling objectives, our the Company acquainted Dr Salvo Reina.

During several years of advisory activities Dr Reina promptly accomplished his job either for documentation or procedural tasks. Besides the due diligences requested by the privacy system, he was also entitled as ICT System Administrator and DBA manager of the ERP/CRM software of the Company.

More recently, according to newly revision of the laws, Dr Reina has been designated as Data Protection Advisor and he also started to take care of the public contents and image of the official web site of the Company.

It is a pleasure to acknowledge Dr Reina for his continual support and appraised value. His concrete contribution to the high level of standard is coupled with a rare level of willingness with all the staff. Everyone in the staff appreciate Dr Reina also for his training and teaching activities during the audits.
